How It Worked.

"Good morning, Jack! why I haven't seem you for a month past. What in the world is the matter with you? You seem to have renewed your youth."

"Well, Phil, I have. Don't you remember the last time I saw you, how miserable I was? Sick and blue, and in that sort of mood a man gets sometimes when he feels the most noble thing in life is to go straight to the devil."

"Not so bad as that, I hope; at all events you didn't go that way, you are looking far too happy and hearty."

"Thank goodness, no! or, rather, thank Vinegar Bitters. Do you remember that day I saw you last, when you recommended that remedy to me so persistently, and I was first vexed and then half convinced?"

"I remember it perfectly, and you needn't say another word upon the subject; your looks tell me that you took the medicine."

"No doubt of it; everybody remarks upon my improved looks and temper; but I must really tell you all about it. I got the old style as you recommended, and didn't mind the bitter taste at all. I finished the bottle in about two weeks, and was greatly improved, so much so that I determined to change off and try the new style."

"Well, how did you like it?"

"You told me your wife preferred the new style, I believe; well, I must say I agree with her. I like the old style very much, but the new is a finer, smoother, more expensive preparation."

"I believe it is; in fact, I have heard so, and I wonder the McDonald Drug Company sell it for the same price they do the old style because it is really a very costly preparation."

"Well, that doesn't concern us. Who was it said that people fancied themselves pious sometimes when they were only bilious? No matter! I was only going to say that I believe people often seem wicked when it is only their liver, or their stomach, or some other cantankerous organ of the body so out of order they couldn't be good if they tried."

"And if all the miserable dyspeptics and victims of biliousness, headache, and the thousand and one ills that flesh is heir to would only take Vinegar Bitters, what a happy world this would be!"

"I should recommend the new style."

"I never go back on the old style."

"Well, they can pay their money and take their choice, for both kinds work admirably."

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.

A Child's Hymn.

SIX HUNDRED YEARS AGO.

Guard, my child, thy tongue,
That it speaks no wrong!
Let no evil word pass o'er it;
Set the watch of truth before it,
That it speaks no wrong,
Guard, my child, thy tongue.

Guide, my child, thine eyes;
Prying if not wise;
Let them look on what is right;
From all evil turn their sight;
Prying is not wise,
Guard, my child, thine eyes.

Guard, my child, thine ear;
Wicked words will sear;
Let no evil word come in
That may cause the soul to sin!
Wicked words will sear,
Guard, my child, thine ear.

Ear, and eyes, and tongue,
Guard while thou art young;
For, alas! these busy three
Can unruly members be;
Guard, while thou art young,
Ear, and eye, and tongue.

How do you do, how do you do, young friends. We are glad to welcome so many of you this week. I thought that we would have a right royal time this winter and you are starting in excellent order.

The College Roll of Honor is swelled nicely, too, this week, and indeed we are going to have a happy time at New Years,—plenty of nice, fresh sweet little letters that will make all of the little readers of the EVANGELIST glad, and the old people too.

We are going to have a good time next year. We know from the way that we are starting in.

We wish every one a Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year, with lot of nice presents, and send us a report of how you spent both days.

I am ever so glad to tell you that we have a deed for the College now. We are going ta get through with it now children, and you will all come to Ashland to finish your education, and then you can see your names in the Roll of Honor that will be found in the College. We want five hundred names by June first, which will fill about five companies. Now for an immense pull for the College. Company C will soon be full. Captain Charlie Yoder commenced Company D and that has a good start. It will be put in as soon as Company C is full.

YOUR EDITOR.

DEAR EDITOR:—I think it is too bad that we haven't got any children's letters on our page any more. The space is taken up with "Vinegar Bitters" and such like advertisements. I don't call such reading interesting. Come boys and girls let's write plenty of letters to crowd them out. Thanksgiving is past and holidays are here, giving us plenty of nice things to write about. I'll tell you how I spent my Thanksgiving. The ladies had a meeting at the East Union school house about 3 miles from Lathrop. First of all, Bro. H. R. Holsinger preached a sermon; after that dinner was served to about 250 people. The proceeds of the dinner will be used for building a church house in that place. We had fine rains and the grass is nice and green. My papa is on the west side of the Joaquin river plowing and we are awful lonesome. Two sisters, one brother, mamma and I are all alone. He will be gone about six weeks in all and that seems a long time to do without a papa. This is enough for this time. I will write some more another time. I will now close.

Good bye.

MAMIE WOLFE.

Lathrop, Cal.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I am 9 years old. I go to Sunday school, but today it was such a rainy day I did not go. I will ask a question: What king had an iron bed-stead? My little sister and myself would like to become members of Ashland College Roll of Honor. Find enclosed 40 cents for Company C. Joyce Horner, 10 cents; Sylvia Horner, 10 cents; Cordia Horner, 10 cents; Melvin Horner, 10 cents. I will close for this time, so good bye.

MELVIN HORNER.

Brighton, Ind.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would try and write for the paper for the first time. I like to read the Children's letters. My pa and ma belong to the Brethren church. I go to school. My teacher's name is Miss Ida Sinegar. I like her very much. My studies are Spelling, Reading, Writing, Arithmetic and Geography. I have a dear little sister. Her name is Harriet Estella Foster. She is 4 years old. I am 11 years old. I used to live in Perry county, O. We came to Ind., in March 1888. We all like our new home ever so much. I want to belong to Company C. I will send 10 cents. I hope to see this in print. so I will close.

EVA M. FOSTER.

Warsaw, Ind.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write a letter for the Children's Column. This is my first letter. I am ten years old. I go to Sunday-School and my teacher's name is Miss Rachel Benshoff, and our superintendent is Mr. Martin Boyer. Our Sunday School expects to have a nice treat on Christmas. Our minister's name is B. F. Gouchenour. My mother, three sisters and myself belong to the Brethren church. I would like if some of my younger brothers and sisters would write for the Children's Column, as I would like to read their letters. I go to school every day and my studies are Reading, Spelling, Geography, Arithmetic, Grammar, Physiology, Writing and Drawing. My teacher's name is Miss Laura Belle Bruce. I will close for this time by sending ten cents for the children's Roll of Honor, Company C.

BERTHA IDELLA STARK.

Johnstown, Pa.

DEAR EDITOR:—I thought I would write again. I see that Company C isn't filling up very fast. Hurrah! girls and boys, let us help to fill out Company C so that we will have the honor of lifting it out of the ditch. There has been a good many of us in A and B, and now we will go to Company C. I have sent ten cents for Company A. and B, and now I will send ten cents for Company C. Hurrah! little girls and boys, it will soon be Christmas, and we will have a jolly time.

GRACE A. OAKES.

Troy, Ohio.

DEAR EDITOR:—This is my first attempt to write for the Children's Column. I see so many children sending their mites to the College, so I will send ten cents and become a member of Company C. I am ten years old. I will close by asking a question: Who banished St. John to the isle of Patmos?

I have a little brother seven years old. I will send ten cents for him.

Who Wins.

Listen to this, dears. I heard a story the other day about an old Indian who had borrowed some tobacco from a white man. After he had got to his wigwam he found some money rolled up in the tobacco, and at first was quite delighted to get it, thinking only of how many pouuds of tobacco it could be exchanged for. But during the night the Indian grew restless and could not sleep, the thought of the money began to trouble him, and he could not make up his mind that it belonged to him. So the next morning he rose bright and early, and came and asked for the "white man." Upon his appearance the Indian said: "I found some money in the tobocco you gave me."

"Why didn't you keep it?" asked the white man.

"Because," said the Indian pointing to his breast, "I've got two men here. One man says, 'it is not mine, give it back to the owner.' The other say, 'yes, yes, it is yours, keep it.' So I don't know what to do, and the two men inside keep talking all night, and they so trouble me I bring the money back, and now I feel good."

Dear children, these "two men inside" are Temptation and Conscience, and they are within you just the same as they were within the old Indian. The bad man is Temptation, the good man Conscience, and they are talking together all the time for and against your duty, and prompting you to right or wrong. Who wins?—Sel.
